DEVELOP AN 'A-LIST'

A statement of the core concerns of social.coop.

For example . .

- Coop practice, skills, strategies
- Coop news, queries
- Coop principles and values - and their enemies
- Solidarity economy, commoning
- P2P infrastructure, P2P federations
- Governance & stewarding of social.coop

DEVELOP A DURABLE, EVOLVING KNOWLEDGE BASE

Around the core concerns - the A-list.

- Mastodon can't do this.
- Loomio is good for decisions, not great at archiving or doc management
- github wiki not flexible enough?

Use 2nd generation wiki - fedwiki?
Host a fedwiki farm?

DEVELOP social.coop AS A 'CULTURAL COMMONS'

We're here to cooperate - but does 'a coop' capture all this? WHAT do we cooperate to make & sustain?

Aren't we A COMMONS?
Commoning insight & knowhow around the A-list?

- Coop ownership and governance of platform infrastructure
- Coop principles & values
- Curating, stewarding & enjoying of 'cultural content' . . concepts, skills, organisational forms, stories. Forms of collaborating & federating @ solidarity economy.
